The closing of the cycle track last Friday night finishes a season four months long, and cycle fans can spend the long winter months discussing the races and winter months discussing the races and the relative merits of the men. Each year the National Cycling association holds a series of races to determine the champions in the amateur and professional classes, and the winners are designated as the champions for the following year. This year the N. C. A. did not hold these races, and as the only races held in the country were here in Utah, and as all of the best riders were in attendance at the local tracks, it comes down to the local track to name the champions for the coming year.

local track to name the champions for the coming year.

Realizing that this would be the case, The Herald has kept a chart of the races for the entire season. This chart shows the standing of every rider in competition, and points are awarded to the riders under the same conditions the N. C. A. would award points had this organization kept a table of the doings of the riders. This is the first time in the history of cycle racing that it has fallen upon a newspaper to name champions in any sport, and this paper's selections will have to be accepted in fairness to all concerned.

Kramer Wins the Plum.

The table shows Frank Kramer at the head of the list, with a total of 91 points won, while Jackie Clarke came second with 79 points. The chart shows every open race of the season and every rider named had a chance to win first if he had the speed in each of the events. In all, forty-six open races were run on the local track. Kramer started in thirty-eight of these events and won a place in all but seventeen. Each race has eleven points, or 506 points up for competition during the season, and Kramer captured 91, more than any other rider, giving him a clear title to the championship under the same conditions in which the N. C. A. would have decided the title.

Demara heads the amateur division by

would have decided the title.

Demara heads the amateur division by a big margin, winning over twice as many points as any other rider. Demara is therefore entitled to the championship for the coming year. In the amateur division fifty-eight races in all were run. Of these. Demara started in fifty-four and was placed twenty-seven times.

The complete standings of the riders for the season, the places and money each won during the season in open competition, are given in the tables following. No attention is paid to match races or motor races, as in these events only the riders selected were eligible to compete. The others would not, therefore, have a chance to win points in these events:

ROLLER SKATING SEASON.

Speed and Fancy Contests Promised This Winter.

With a building thoroughly renovated the roller skating season for the coming winter will open at the Auditorium rink on Tuesday, Oct. 1, and patrons of this place of amusement will find many improvements at the place. The big floor has been smoothed and polished by an electric surfacing machine recently purchased by the company, and the interior has been cleaned and deco-

President O'Mara of the association stated last night that he is making bookings for many interesting atttractions for the coming season. One of the features to be played up this winter will be the musical programs each afternoon and evening. Held's band has been engaged for the season, and Mr. O'Mara will secure the latest New York musical attractions suitable for the place. The rink will not be open on Sundays. There will be, during the season, a number of championship contests for speed and fancy skating, and a number of artists will be engaged to give exhibitions from time to time.

GREAT PITCHING STUNT.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 14.—By pitching both games of a double-header and shutting out Shreveport in both, Wilhelm broke a world's record. Including the eighteen innings today he has gone fifty-nine successive innings without allowing a score. Pitcher Johnson of Washington before this afternoon held the world's record, he having gone through six successive games in the Idaho State league without allowing

BIKE CHAMPIONS Y.M.C.A. EXPECTS HEAVY SQUAD GREAT SEASON

Kramer Wins in Pro. Class and Association Pushing Athletics Outlook for Strong Team on Stronger Than Ever This Year-Will Do Things.

> The coming year gives every indication of being a season of intense activity for the physical department of the local Y. M. C. A. While much is done along the lines of competitive athletics the department exists mainly for the purpose of developing strong physical manhood through scientific gymnastic

The classes are divided, first into groups on the basis of age, and then each class is subdivided into squads on a basis of individual physical need, which is previously determined by a thorough examination. The classes are conducted for various groups of boys different afternoons and Saturday mornings. For business men Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 12:15 p. m., and Tuesday and Thursday at 5 p. m., and for young men Monday and Thursday evenings. This year the class will be divided into two sections, beginners and advanced; the beginners class will meet at 6:15 and run until 7:45, and include all men who have done little or no gymnasium work. The until 7:45, and include all men who have done little or no gymnasium work. The advanced class will begin at 8 p. m., running until 10 p. m., and includes men who have been in the department for some time. An interesting feature of all the classes is team competition that follows the regular class work. Each class has four teams, each one of which competes with others in turn for various sports and games, the team having the greatest and games, the team having the greatest number of victories to its credit during the class term being declared the win-

Leaders Class.

The director is assisted in each class by a corps of volunteer "leaders." These men are selected because of superior athletic ability and are especially trained to assist the director in all phases of class work. This year between fifty and sixty men will be engaged in this volunteer assistance.

To as great an extent as possible competition between various groups in the department will be conducted. A basketball league will be organized, comprising one or more teams from each class. Once every two months a department handicap indoor track meet will be con-

Wrestling.

M. R. Yokel, who so efficiently conducted the wrestling classes last year, will again be with the association, and there is every indication that the wrestling class will be one of the most popular features of the department work this year. The association championships will be held in the spring and an effort will also be made to conduct regular A. A. U. wrestling championships for the intermountain country.

Basketball.

Basketball, the great indoor game, as before will be the most popular winter sport. Last year the association had an exceptionally strong team, which played consistently throughout the season. Owing to the fact that the team was not in the state league the schedule was irregular and the last game was lost because the team had been disbanded and brought together again to play for the brought together again to play for the state championship with very little practice. Out of thirteen games played only three were lost, the team's greatest achievement being the defeat of the Crescent Five team from Evanston, Ill. This team made a ten-thousand-mile tour of the United States, and was heralded everywhere as undisputed champions. Although several of last year's best men are gone a strong team will be put in the field this season. Local games have not yet been arranged, but two contests with visiting teams are scheduled, one with a team from Alaska and one one with a team from Alaska and one with the Muscatine aggregation, champions of Iowa. Toward the close of the season a regular tournament will be conducted for the Utah association A. A. U. championship.

Aquatics. Aquatics hold a high place in the de-partment activities. The big pool is one of the most popular features of the building, and this year the water sports club will be busy all the time. The A.
A. U. inside pool meet will be conducted during the winter and next summer the association will enter a strong team in the annual A. A. U. aquatic meet. The Y. M. C. A. men captured most of the prizes in the recent meet held at Wanda-

Baseball.

The association has had a baseball team in the field since May 1 last. Early the department organized a Saturday afternoon amateur baseball league. composed of some of the strongest teams in the city. The Z. C. M. I. finished in first place and the Y. M. C. A. tied for second. Colonel Plummer of the national guard of Utah, expects to put two indoor baseball teams in the field this winter. The association will have a team and with the strongest that the strongest content is the strongest transfer of and with one from the University of Utah. a strong indoor baseball league will be organized. This sport has long been neglected in the state and a big effort will be made to revive it this year.

Track Athletics.

Until this year the Y. M. C. A. has never played a very prominent part in athletics, mainly because of lack of com-petition. Now that the annual A. A. U. meet is an established feature a strong track team will be put in the field. In the meet held last June at Wandamere the association ran a very close second to the University of Utah. Indoor track work will be conducted all winter.

Tennis.

Tennis is growing more and more popular with the Y. M. C. A. members. This summer the courts have been busy constantly. The association has entered men in every important tournament held dur-ing the season and has made a creditable showing. During the winter handball tournaments will be conducted between various groups. Players of this popular game are constantly on the increase. Registration for the various classes are being received, and on the opening Sept. 23, it is expected that the total number of men registered for classes will break all previous records.

lowing resolution: 'Any person who owns, wholly, in part, or is interested directly or indirectly in any book made on races at any meeting which is licensed by this commission, shall not be permitted, while being interested in such book, to race, train or ride any horse upon any track so licensed, and for any violation of this rule the guilty party shall be ruled off."

REPORTS AT U.

East Bench Growing Brighter Each Day.

The candidates for the University of Utah football team will hold the initial practice of the season Monday afternoon at Cummings field. There are already twenty-four men who have signified their intentions of trying out Monday. In the squad are some fast and heavy men, and enough material for one of the heaviest, best and strongest teams that the state institution has had. Coach Maddock is pleased with the outlook and says things look exceedingly good, considering the large number of men that were lost last Present Candidates.

At present the candidates for the back field are "Dad" Convill, Captain Cuddy Russell, Harry Moore, Will Ferguson, Sandy Halm and Barney Quinn. Maddock expects to add two more men to this list by Monday who will make a strong bid for right halfback. Convill, the gentleman from Indiana, is slated to take Fred Bennion's place at full-back. This was the biggest hole in the team, and is probably the best filled. Convill's record with the big Purque eleven speaks for itself, and he will no doubt rival Bennion for the greatest fullback Utah ever had.

Utah's Greatest Ground Gainer.

Captain Russell will be back at his old place. He is stronger this year than ever before. He has been recognized for the last two years as being the biggest ground gainer on the hill. This will be Ferguson's first year on the big squad. He has played on the class teams with good records. Ferguson weighs about 170 and is one of the fastest men in the squad. He is an aspir-ant for right half. Frank Halm is also out for this position. Halm played on the old East Side High school team. He has not participated in the game since then. Halm is a tall, wiry fellow, and Maddock thinks he will have a great halfback in him before he leaves the school. He entered this year as a freshman. Quinn was the star on the All Hallows college team last year and is heavy enough for the "U" team.

Moore for Quarter.

Fuzzy Moore seems to be the only one out for quarter. At the preliminary practice at Lagoon he showed great form, and it looks as though he will develop into a star in this position.

The departure of Peterson, Varley,

Ray and Barton will leave the line somewhat disfigured. Peterson at end was one of the strongest men on last year's team, and he was picked for the All-Rocky Mountain eleven. Barton was the heaviest man on the squad last Line Men Out.

The candidates for line positions to date are Bryant, Snow, Palm, Oisen Holdsworth, Peterson, Christenson, Roberts, Anderson, Home, Sutton, Hennesey, Pierce, McNaughton, Journal, Tracy, Naylor and Carlson, Bryant played a tackle and Palm a guard on last year's team. It was Palm's first year, and his playing put him in the list of the best guards the university ever had. Olsen, Snow and Sutton were substitutes last year. For ends those who will try out are Anderson, who played an end last year; Roberts, left guard on the champion S. L. H. S. eleven of 1905; Pierce, another High school man; Holdsworth, who played end on the Michigan Agricultural college. Peterson and Christenson are two promising line men. They are both new at the university and both tip the beam above 215. Hennessey and Home are two more ex-High school players, and they also go over the 200 mark. From these men Maddock will be able to get a center, guards and tackles that will average over 200 pounds, but the ends

No Bennions on Team.

Most of the squad have had the advantage of a week's preliminary training at Lagoon, but this will be the first work of the season for a number of them. For the first time in a number of years there will be no Bennions trying for the team. The three brothers who are in the game at present are Fred, Earl and Dez. Fred is at Pennsylvania, Earl is at Logan, where he will try for quarter on the Aggie team, and Dez is on the Bennion farm at Taylorsville. Maddock hopes to get the men in shape soon so he can play a few practice games before the season opens on Oct. 12. On this date the U team meets Denver university on Cummings

MANY CANDIDATES OUT.

The High school football squad has The High school football squad has made great progress during the past week. The outlook for a successful team, although rather poor at first, is now fairly good. The squad has been considerably trimmed down. Only men who have put up a fairly good article of football have been retained. This squad, which is now something over twenty-five, will be cut down to twenty, and this number will be played on the team throughout the year.

FRED W. WALKER, AGGIES' NEW COACH.

The Agricultural college new coach arrived in Logan last week and has started to get out a strong team for the farmers. Walker is a former player on the Chicago university and acted as assistant coach to Stagg. He played end on the team at the same time Coach J. F. Tobin of the All Hallows played tackle, and has met Coach Joe Maddock on the gridiron in games between Chicago and Michigan. ROSE MAKES NEW WORLD'S RECORD

Californian Easily Star of New York Athletic Club Meet.

New York, Sept. 14.-Many athletes who figured in the international track and field events at Jamestown a week ago were among the competitors in the fall games at the New York Athletic club at ravers island today.

Ralph Rose of the Glympic club, San Francisco, was the most prominent figure in the field events, as he made several new world's records in throwing weights. By courtesy of the officials some extra contests in his line were added to the card. In order to make the record clear for competition Dennis Horgan and Robert Edgren took part in the extras, as well as Gilmour of the San Francisco club. In the regular event with the 16-pound well as Gilmour of the San Francisco club. In the regular event with the 16-pound shot Rose sent the missile 49 feet 5½ inches.
